MEMORANDUM

TO: All Uniform Crime Reports Coordinators

FROM: The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program

SUBJECT: Verification/Validation of the 2013 Annual Data

The 2013 Annual data provided by your agency for inclusion in the UCR (Uniform Crime Report) Annual Report has been accepted. This means that your agency's data has been processed and passed all the edits incorporated into the UCR Input Program. Please note that the acceptance of your data does not validate the volume of crime, clearance data, or property data submitted for each crime category. A member of the UCR staff has reviewed your report and enclosed two UCR checklists identifying areas that reflect a significant increase/decrease in comparison to your agency's prior year data. Please take a few minutes to review the enclosed UCR report, warnings generated from your submission, the Crime in Florida Report generated for your agency, and the UCR checklists, to ensure that you have provided the most complete and accurate information possible.

The UCR checklists and the Crime In Florida Report generated for your agency have been provided so that your agency can compare your 2013 Annual data with your 2012 Annual data. When comparing your current submission to the previous year, please pay particular attention to the areas identified on the enclosed UCR checklists. Upon comparison, if you find that any of the 2013 data is inaccurate, please provide corrected data to the UCR Staff immediately. Please note that once the Annual data has been published it becomes historical; therefore, the 2012 data cannot be altered. Reviewing this report in advance of The Florida Department of Law Enforcement's release of the Annual data will enable you to prepare for any inquiries or questions you may receive from the media or public after the 2013 Annual Crime In Florida has been released.

If the data contained in the report is valid, please provide your agency head with the enclosed verification letter, UCR Report, Crime In Florida Report, UCR checklists and warnings for his/her review. After your agency head has reviewed the report, please have him/her complete and sign the verification letter and the UCR checklists. Please note that your Sheriff, Chief or Director must sign and date both the verification letter and the UCR checklists before returning them to the UCR Program.

We ask that you verify the information immediately upon receipt of this notification and provide your Sheriff, Chief or Director with the information so that he/she can provide a response within five days from receipt of this letter.

If you have any questions, please call the UCR Unit, at 850-410-7121.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Chief David DeKay
FROM: The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program
SUBJECT: Verification Letter

The enclosed Uniform Crime Reports information was provided by your UCR Coordinator and accepted by the FDLE UCR Program. The attached report contains the figures that will be used to compile both the Florida Department of Law Enforcement's and the Federal Bureau of Investigation's UCR Annual Report for 2013.

Please review these figures and how they relate to last year's Annual figures. The Crime in Florida Report and the UCR checklists have been provided to make you aware of how your agency's 2013 Annual figures relate to your 2012 Annual figures. Please note that the areas identified on the UCR checklists do not reflect an error on your agency's part, but we ask that you review these areas to ensure that the figures are accurate. Certify the validation of your agency's data by checking the appropriate statement on the verification letter. You must also sign and date both the verification letter and the UCR checklists before returning them to the UCR Program. If you believe that the 2013 Annual figures are not accurate, please ensure that you provide the adjusted information with your reply. Note that you cannot make adjustments to the 2012 Annual data.

Please verify the information immediately upon receipt of this notification and provide a response, within five days, by returning this sheet and the UCR checklists to the number or email address provided below.
