Update re. Convenience Store Robbery Pattern

Detectives advise that those individuals who wish to provide tips on the convenience store robberies through Crime Stoppers may do so at 1-800-873 TIPS (8477) or at www.crimestoppersofpinellas.org

At about 11:10 A.M. this morning the two suspects believed to be involved in the pattern of convenience store robberies noted in this morning’s media alert, struck again, this time at the Sunoco Station located at 6800 4th Street North.

In this situation the suspects not only robbed the cashier, but also robbed a delivery driver who was in the store at the time.

The scenario is the same as in the other robberies with one suspect being armed and the other unarmed suspect going behind the counter to get the cash.

The surveillance video from today’s robbery is attached however both suspects’ faces are covered. We would asked that the still photo of the Kenwood Citgo robbery showing the one suspect’s face also be utilized in any news report in order that viewers might provide a possible lead as to the suspect’s identity.

Anyone who might recognize these two subjects or have information concerning the robberies is asked to call Detective Wallace Pavelski at 727-893-4823. Callers may also utilize 727-893-7780 or the TIP line at 727-892-5000.

Convenience Store Robbery Pattern

On February 7th, 2013 we release a video of an armed robbery to the Kenwood Citgo Gas Station located at 900 34th Street North. Since that time two other convenience store robberies have taken place which detectives believe are the work of the same two suspects.

These last robberies took place on February 11th with the first taking place at Chevron Station located at 5405 Dr. ML King St North at about 9:50 p.m.

In that case the two suspects entered the store with their faces covered and confronted the cashier. One of the suspects was armed with a handgun and pointed it at the victim. Both suspects then went behind the counter and opened the two cash register drawers. When leaving, the armed suspect also took the cashier’s cell phone.

About 15 minutes later the same two suspects committed a robbery to the KR Food Store at 2835 16 Street North.

In that case the first suspect entered the store alone. When the second suspect entered the store, he pointed a gun at the cashier while a customer was still standing at the counter and demanded money from the register. The first suspect then came up from behind the customer, reached over the counter and retrieved the money from the register after which both suspects fled from the store.

Since there is no usable video footage from the last two robberies, detectives are asking the media to re-release the video of the Kenwood Citgo Station robbery in the hopes that it will generate tips as to the suspects’ identities. That video has a particularly good image of one of the suspects unmasked and easily identifiable.

Anyone who might recognize these two subjects or have information concerning the robberies is asked to call Detective Wallace Pavelski at 727-893-4823. Callers may also utilize 727-893-7780 or the TIP line at 727-892-5000.
