For Immediate Release
Jul 26, 2013

Missing and Endangered Runaway

Name and Description:

Dinhngo Nguyen, DOB: 7-6-97 (just turned 16), 4726 22nd Avenue North.

He is an Asian male and is described as 5'5” tall, 140 lbs, black buzzed cut hair, glasses, and was last seen wearing a blue shirt and grey shorts. He is described as very introverted.

He was last seen wearing the same blue shirt that he is wearing in the attached photograph and was also carrying a clear-colored backpack.

Dinhngo does not have a vehicle and is believed to be traveling on foot, possibly in either North St. Petersburg or Clearwater.

Dinhngo Nguyen is considered endangered because he suffers from mental and physical conditions that require him to take prescription medications, but he has not taken those medications since he left home on the evening of July 23, 2013.

He has run away from home twice in the past, but both of those times were prior to 2011.

On one of those occasion he was found near a bridge in Clearwater, Florida. The second time he was found near a CVS store at 22nd Avenue North and 34th Street North.

His father, Phuc Nguyen, last saw Dinhngo at home on July 23, 2013 at 11:00 p.m. and found him missing the next morning and called the police department.

If anyone has any information on his whereabouts, please call our Department’s Communications Center at 727-893-7780 or Civilian Investigator Deanna Mobley at 727-892-5073.

Information by Bill Proffitt on July 26, 2013 at 3:10 p.m.