Convenience Store Armed Robbery Video Released

On March 23, 2014 at about 10:00 p.m., an unidentified lone male suspect entered the Hungry Babas convenience store at 1811 Dr. M. L. King Jr. Street South armed with a rifle. The suspect was masked and robbed the clerk, taking cash from the register and then fled the store. No car was seen and there were no injuries.

The suspect was described as a B/M, 2530yoa, 6'00"6'02", 150160lbs, dark skin, black shirt concealing face, black leather jacket and black pants.

Surveillance video taken from the store can be viewed at;
