For Immediate Release
Mar 01, 2014

U.S. Marshals Service Post Billboard/Reward for Pinellas Trail Robbery Suspect

The U.S. Marshals Service is assisting the St. Petersburg Police Department in the search for Pinellas Trail robbery suspect Germaine Davansha SMALL.

A billboard offering up to a $2500 reward for information leading to Small’s arrest is located at the intersection of Ulmerton Road and 49th Street North (see attached photo), in Pinellas County.

Anyone with knowledge of Smalls whereabouts is asked to call the U.S. Marshals Service at 727-639-1167.

Information released by Mike Puetz, 727-420-6448, michael.puetz@stpete.org

#######

Previous release of Fri Feb 21, 2014 08:14:58

Detectives Seek Suspect in Pinellas Trail Robbery

Wanted Suspect: Germaine Davansha SMALL, aka “Bolt”, B/M, DOB 03/08/1996 (certified adult), 5’6”, 150 lbs, close cut hair, clean shaven (flyer attached).

Robbery detectives have obtained an arrest warrant for SMALL related to a February 1st armed robbery on the Pinellas Trail. The robbery took place on the Pinellas Trail, in the vicinity of 8th Avenue South and 46th Street at about 3:00 in the afternoon.

Detectives believe the SMALL and an accomplice physically attacked and robbed at gun point a man and woman riding their bikes on the Trail. During the robbery SMALL struck the woman in the face with the butt of a handgun knocking out several of her teeth.

After the robbery, SMALL and his accomplice took the victim’s bikes and other personnel belongings and fled the area. The bikes were later recovered in the area of 18th Avenue South and 45th Street. The firearm used in the robbery has not been recovered.

Efforts to locate SMALL so far have been unsuccessful and detectives are offering a reward for information leading to his arrest. Detectives do believe that SMALL is aware that he is wanted by the police and is hiding to avoid capture.

SMALL does have prior arrests for residential burglary and auto theft.

Anyone with any information regarding the location of Germaine Small is asked to please call our Communications Center.
at (727) 893-7780 or Detective Pavelski at (727) 893-4823. They may also Text-A-Tip to 727-420-8911 or leave a confidential tip at 727-892-5000.

Information released by Mike Puetz, 727-893-7550, michael.puetz@stpete.org