St. Petersburg Police Detectives need help from the public to identify a suspect who stole a vehicle from the parking lot of Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church located at 2580 12th Avenue South on May 18, 2014 at 2:15 p.m.

The victims were unloading tables and chairs at the church from their 2013 Toyota Highlander. For a brief period of time, they left the Toyota unlocked, the keys in the ignition and their 10 month old baby girl secured in a car seat.

During the approximate five minutes that the victims were inside of the church, two male teens entered the dark gray 2013 Toyota Highlander and drove away. About three minutes later, one of the suspects dropped off the baby on the doorstep of 2022 11th Ave South, unharmed and still sitting in her car seat. The owner of the home arrived just after the suspect had fled, found the child and alerted police.

At 7:30 that evening, the Toyota Highlander was recovered in a parking lot at 735 22nd Avenue South.

SUSPECT DESCRIPTION:
Black male, teens, wearing beige shorts and a black tank top with close cut hair.

Detectives are asking for assistance in identifying the suspect seen in this video. Anyone who has information on this incident should call the non-emergency number at 727-893-7780, Text-A-Tip to 727-420-8911 or leave a confidential tip at 727-892-5000.

Information released Jen Dawkins, St. Petersburg Police, 727-893-7749 jennifer.dawkins@stpete.org