Officer Involved Crash Shuts Down 34th street North

At 12:27AM, 3 vehicles, including a police cruiser, were involved in a crash in the 3100 block of 34th st. N. in St. Petersburg. The police officer and 4 other people were taken to Bayfront Hospital with varying injuries, none life-threatening.

St. Petersburg police shut down 34th street N. between 30th Ave. N. and 34th Ave. N. It will remain closed to traffic in all directions for at least an hour.

At this time it is not clear how the accident occurred, or which direction the cruiser was headed. This did not involve a pursuit.

The investigator at the scene will send an update when it becomes available.

*********************************************************************************

Yolanda Fernandez