Suspect Charged in Pinellas Trail Robberies

Arrested Suspect: Stephon Alexander Farrar, B/M, DOB 02/20/1996, LKA of 5344 1st Avenue South, St. Petersburg (photo attached)

Farrar was arrested in St. Louis, MO yesterday morning (09/03/14) on outstanding warrants charging him with three counts of robbery. Two counts relate to incidents which took place on the Pinellas Trail back in May and June of this year.

Detectives believe that on 05/20/14 Farrar robbed a 16 year male victim on the Trail near 13th Avenue North and 70 Street, threatening him with a taser and taking a cell phone.

Then on 06/21/14, Farrar is believed to have rob a pizza delivery driver at gunpoint in the area of 5 Avenue South and 51st Street.

Lastly, on 06/23/14, Farrar committed a strong arm robbery on a 15 year old male on the Pinellas Trail in the vicinity of 13th Avenue North and 70th Street, again taking a cell phone.

Arrangements for extradition back to the Pinellas County are ongoing.

Information released by Mike Puetz, 727-893-7550, michael.puetz@stpete.org

Stephon Alexander Farrar