On September 6, 2014 at 10:30 p.m. a male suspect, with his face wrapped in a black shirt, approached the victims who were sitting in their parked vehicle. (He already had his gun aimed at the driver as he approached.) The victims were waiting on their laundry to dry at the Coin Laundry at 2465 5th Avenue North.

The suspect demanded cash and cell phones, and the victims complied.

The suspect and his look-out fled the area on foot.

Surveillance video captured these suspects walking toward the front of the laundry mat before the robbery occurred.
