Homicide Suspect Wanted

Wanted Suspect: Juan Javier, H/M, DOB 8/11/1988, 5’10, 190 lbs, tattoo on his right arm of a human male face, various gang tattoos on back and arms

On Sunday, 4/12/15, detectives investigated the homicidal death of James Cason which occurred in the parking lot of the Stinger Bar located at 2222 49th Street North in St. Petersburg.

The investigation revealed that Cason and Juan Oquendo became engaged in verbal dispute in the parking lot after Oquendo was removed from the bar by a bouncer. During that dispute Oquendo produced a handgun and shot and killed Cason.

A first degree murder warrant has been issued for Oquendo and the U.S. Marshals Service is offering a $2,500 reward for information leading his arrest.

Anyone with information on Oquendo’s location is asked to please call the St. Petersburg Police at 727-893-7780 or use the anonymous Tip-411! Text "SPPD" and your tip to 847-411 (Tip-411).
