Fatal Crash 6000 block of the Pinellas Bayway

On 06/04/2015 at about 7:25 p.m. a 2005 Chevrolet Corvette, being driven by Martin Frederick Mastriano (W/M, 09/23/1987, 755 42nd Avenue South, St Petersburg) was eastbound on the Pinellas Bayway at a very high rate of speed. Kyle Scott Matyac (W/M, 04/30/1988, 195 45th Avenue, St Pete Beach) was the passenger.

In the 6000 block of the Pinellas Bayway, Mastriano lost control and the Chevrolet left the south side of the roadway. The vehicle went through a drainage ditch then became airborne. The vehicle traveled more than 50 yard in the air, before impacting the ground and tumbling to its final rest.

Mastriano was unrestrained and was ejected from the vehicle. Matyac was restrained and was crushed as the vehicle rolled over. Mastriano was transported to Bayfront Health St Petersburg in serious condition. Matyac was pronounced deceased at the scene of the crash.

The investigation is continuing. Next of kin have been notified

###########

Previous release of Thu Jun 04, 2015 20:00:06

Fatal accident at the Pinellas Bayway and Sun Blvd
St. Petersburg police are investigating a fatal accident that occurred at approximately 7:30pm at the Pinellas Bayway and Sun Blvd.

Preliminary information: It was a single car crash involving a silver corvette. One man died at the scene, another man was injured and taken to the hospital.

The Bayway remains open, but traffic is being detoured at Sun Blvd.

This is all the information that will be released until Traffic Investigators complete their analysis of the scene. This will take several hours. They will put out a media alert once they complete their investigation.