ARMED BARRICADED WOMAN SITUATION ENDS PEACEFULLY

A four hour stand-off ended with a distraught woman surrendering to police at a home at 1837 Quincy St. S. last night. No one else was in the house at the time.

Concerned relatives of Patricia Harris, DOB 10-14/55, called police after she phoned them and made suicidal statements. A family friend went by the home and confirmed that Harris was holding a gun and asked her to leave.

When police arrived shortly after 8p.m., an officer reported he heard two shots fired. SWAT was called-up. After four hours, a negotiator was able to diffuse the situation and talk Harris out of the house peacefully. Officers took her into custody under the Baker Act at about 12:15a.m.
