Stabbing

Update to Stabbing

The victim’s injuries are not considered life threatening. She is being treated and is expected to be released from the hospital later this evening.

Previously released--------------------------

Stabbing

St. Petersburg police was called to the Amscott, 3738 Central Ave., shortly before 6:30pm. Preliminary information is that two women were brawling in the parking lot. One stabbed the other and left the scene. The victim was taken to Bayfront Health as a trauma alert. We have no information on her condition at this time.