Update on Grenade Found

In an abundance of caution, the Tampa Bomb Squad was called and their experts were quickly able to determine that the grenade was made of plastic and was a child’s toy.

--------------------Previously released----------------------

Possible Old Grenade Found

A woman called police to report her 3-year-old son found what appears to be an old grenade on the private beach area behind a vacant home at 2834 Pelham Rd N.

It is partially buried in sand below the sea wall.

Our officers responded and the Tampa Bomb Squad has been called.

Fire dept. is also responding.

For Immediate Release
December 2, 2016