Arrest Made in First Degree Murder Case

On July 23, 2016, just after 10:00 a.m., wanted suspect Taurus Randall Frederick, b/m, 2/16/1978, walked into the St. Petersburg Police Department to turn himself in for the first degree murder of Jeron Anthony Davis.

On June 20, 2016, at 1:00 p.m., at 22nd Avenue South and Dr. MLK Jr. Street South in St. Petersburg, Frederick and Davis became involved in an argument. Frederick followed Davis in a car and then ran Davis over. Frederick abandoned the car and ran on foot from the area. Davis was pronounced dead at the scene.

On June 23, 2016, detectives obtained a warrant for the arrest of Frederick for first degree murder.

Following Frederick’s arrest this morning, he was taken to the Pinellas County Jail and booked.

Report # 2016-028730.

Taurus Randall Frederick