Update: Serious Scooter Crash at 30th Avenue North and 65th Way

The medical condition of the injured scooter driver is no longer considered life-threatening.

Additionally, east and westbound traffic is no longer blocked on 30th Avenue North at the site of the crash.

 Previously Released ***************************

Serious Scooter Crash at 30th Avenue North and 65th Way

Officers are on the scene of a serious scooter crash that occurred at 7:23 p.m. A scooter being driven by a middle-aged man was westbound on 30th Avenue North. The driver hit the median at 65th Way North and was thrown from the scooter. The driver was not wearing a helmet.

The driver sustained possible life-threatening injuries and was taken to Bayfront Health St. Petersburg as a trauma alert.

East and westbound traffic on 30th Avenue North is blocked from 64th Street to 65th Way.

St. Petersburg Police Department report # 2016-011040.