The St. Petersburg Police Department is currently working a person shot that occurred behind 4670 13th Avenue South. The victim is a 20 year old woman. She was taken to Bayfront Health St. Petersburg with non-life threatening injuries.

Major Crimes Unit detectives are currently on scene investigating the shooting. There is no additional information at this time. If more information is developed during the night, an update will be provided.

Report number 2016-052455.