Fight Over Uber Ride Results in Serious Injury:update

Kimball-- the passenger has died. Still no update on the investigation and no charges yet.
Report #2017-037592

-----previously released-----

At 7:30 p.m., Uber driver, Kabir O'Farril Diaz, DOB 8-8-79, picked up a paying passenger, Terry Lynn Kimball (male) DOB 4-2-61.

They had a dispute over the route the driver was taking. The driver pulled over to the Quick Pick Foods store, 800 58th St. N., and they had a physical altercation. The driver punched Kimball, and Kimball did not regain consciousness.

Kimball is hospitalized with serious brain trauma. His injuries are considered life-threatening.

Investigators are speaking with witnesses and Diaz is cooperating. Although he has not been charged at this time, this is still an ongoing
