Bartlett Park Community Resource Center Grand Re-Opening

On Saturday, June 3, 10a.m. to 2p.m. the St. Petersburg Police Department will host the grand re-opening of the Bartlett Park Community Resource Center at its new location.

The new Community Resource Center is housed in the Neighborhood Home Solutions Homeownership Center Building in Bartlett Park, 1600 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Street South St. Petersburg.

This is one of three police sponsored community centers. Police volunteers staff the centers and offer community based meetings, bicycle registration, referral to proper police/ city departments and many other services. The center also features computers and phones for community use.

Our event will occur in conjunction with the Neighborhood Home Solutions, The Path to Homeownership Community Event. **See attached flyer.
