Serious Injury Crash 3500 block of 49th St N

A car went off the road and hit two men sitting at a bus stop in front of Disston Plaza.

49th Street is closed from 34th- 38th Ave North for the investigation.
The driver, a woman, stopped and is cooperating with the investigation.

The victims are related grandfather and adult grandson. Both were injured. The grandfather's injuries are life-threatening

Update: 83 year old victim died of his injuries

At 12:50 p.m., driver Louise Pequeno, DOB 1-18-39, turned right out of Disston Plaza to head north on 49th Street. Investigators believe a small white or light colored SUV swerved to avoid her but made contact with her vehicle. Pequeno then swerved and drove into the bus stop bench.

Victim Gabriel Oliva, 12-20-81, suffered broken bones, but he is expected to be okay.
His grandfather, Santiago Carcamo, age 83, suffered critical injuries and died this afternoon at Bayfront Health.

Investigators would like to speak to the driver of the light colored SUV that may have been involved. Anyone with information, please call 893-7780 or text SPPD + your tip to TIP411.
