Quarterly Awards Ceremony

The St. Petersburg Police Department is having its Quarterly Awards Ceremony at 2pm today at the Lake Vista Recreation Center (1401 62nd Ave South).

A special Lifesaving Award presentation will be made by 10-year-old London Stumpo to St. Petersburg Police Officer Kurt Bradshaw for saving his life, after the boy choked on his food inside a fast-food restaurant.

SPPD will also recognize Michael Conklin as Employee of the Quarter and an undercover officer as Police Officer of the Quarter. LaGuanda Fleming and Kimberly Thompson will receive the Chief's of Award of Excellence, Officer Cedric Doss, a Life-saving Award and Richard Stokes will be given the Chief's Award of Bravery.

The ceremony will be followed by a short reception.
