Burglar Caught

For Immediate Release:
September 11, 2017

Burglar Caught Stealing from Evacuated Home

At 12:40p.m., a vigilant neighbor called to report a suspicious man at 7599 15th Street North. The caller told police his neighbors had boarded up the home and evacuated due to Hurricane Irma.

Police caught David Christopher Love, DOB 2-24-96, at the scene with stolen property. Investigators determined he broke in through back door, but was unable to get into the main home.

He was charged with residential burglary and possession of burglary tools. He also had a warrant out for Violation of probation for a previous unrelated charge.

A mugshot for a previous arrest is attached.
