National Night Out 2017

The St. Petersburg Police Department will hold it's Annual National Night Out from 6pm to 8pm on Tuesday October 3rd, 2017 at the Target located at Gateway Plaza (8151 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Street), in St. Petersburg.

The purpose of the event is to give the community a chance to learn how first responders address various needs in our community and highlight some of the tools that are used in doing so.

A variety of federal, state and local law enforcement, fire and emergency agencies will join forces with Target, SPC, the Rays, The Bucs, The Rowdies and other local businesses. We invite the public to come out and take part in a host of family-friendly activities including a bike rodeo and bouncy houses.

Participants will enjoy giveaways, free food, prizes and several presentations plus an opportunity to meet members of our local law enforcement community and emergency personnel.

Major sponsors include Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital, Target, St. Petersburg College, Amscott, ADT, Ring, Jimmy Johns, King's Hawaiian Bread, Diet & Watson, Associa and the National Night Out.

For any questions, interview requests or additional information, please contact the Community Awareness Division at 727-893-7550.
