Pornography Arrest

After a month long investigation, St. Petersburg detectives arrested 57 year old Daniel Bolino (8-30-1960), 8280 28th Avenue North, for multiple counts of possession of child pornography.

Working with the Largo Police Department through the regional Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, investigators found numerous graphic images of girls, ages 5-14, performing various sexual acts.

As for the victims, none of the girls is believed to be from our region. These are known files and they have been investigated, or are already in the judicial process.

At this time, Bolino is charged with 20 counts, however, the investigation continues.
