

ST. PETERSBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

COMMUNITY AWARENESS DIVISION

YOLANDA FERNANDEZ, MANAGER
727-893-7550

April 24, 2018

Police Torch Run for Special Olympics

Tomorrow, Wednesday, April 25, 2018, starting at 8:00 a.m., St. Petersburg Police will join law enforcement agencies from all over Pinellas County will run the Torch to raise funds and bring awareness for Special Olympics. This is the 35th year for this annual event in Florida.

Program begins at 8a.m. on the front steps of the St. Petersburg Police Department, 1300 1st Avenue North, with the run beginning at 8:15 a.m., heading west on 1st Avenue North.

The torch will be passed to runners from different Pinellas agencies in a relay. Special Olympics athletes will greet runners along the way. The race ends at Paul B. Stephens School, 2935 CR 193, in Clearwater, where students will greet the runners.