July 27, 2018

SPPD/PAL Host “The Law & You” Program

Today the St. Petersburg Police Department (SPPD) and the Police Athletic League (PAL) are hosting a special program called “The Law and You” to help young people forge positive relationships with law enforcement. PAL summer campers will have the opportunity to learn about the various jobs in the police department to foster positive future interactions with law enforcement.

SPPD representatives from the patrol, K-9, SWAT and several other divisions will meet with the kids and explain what they do and how they contribute to the police department’s mission.

The program will be held at PAL, 1450 16th St. North, from 1pm to 3pm today.

For any additional information, please contact Officer Dave Lopez 727-403-9929.
